Gentlemen, Your kind letter of the 26th inst with the Fugio Cent enclosed reached me Safe yesterday. You will please find enclosed $1.00 for Cent, many thanks - my mania is (Coin) or principle for American Coins. But the way did not buy any of those old Foreign Coins that were dug up 6 feet under ground in the streets of Philadelphia some time ago? Please send me a Catalogue of your sale coming off next month. What can you sell me a real fine 1804 Cent for? I have 4-1/2 cents & 3 one cent - But those of my 1804 Cents are all badly worn and nearly all very dark Newly. New Jersey Coins are poor.

Kindly give me your quotations for New Jersey Colonial Coins, those in fine condition — I have only a few Medical Medals —
Very Respectfully
Dr. J. Le Gardeur

Gentlemen,

I wrote you for one of your Catalogues of Yorn Dale (auction) coming off Nov. 6 & 7th But to this date I have failed to receive it, also asking you what you could furnish me a genuine perfect 1804 Cent (American) for, I would like to get a good one in any respect I am willing to pay you for your Catalogue. Please give me your price and I will remit. In haste very Respectfully

Dr. J. Le Van Bender.

Philadelphia, Pa. Gentlemen,

Your letter of the 19th inst received today. I think some of visiting my "old home" and birth place (Easton, Pa) and if I do I will come to Philadelphia and call to see you - I do want a fine bright red 1804 but don't feel able to pay $50.00 I may be able to find 1804 among some of my Grandmother's Patients in the Country. Please send me a fine "Mark Newby" - What luck did you have with your Pin Bale? Please find enclosed $1.00 for Coin -

Very Respectfully

W. J. L. Van Bender.
